Phil K

Profile

Hi I'm Phil. I'm a voice actor who helps creative people's projects sound great and share their stories with the world. I love working with Production houses, Indie Game studios, TV studios, Advertising agencies, Marketing agencies and Casting directors. It is amazing how a voice can connect with people emotionally. It's my job to tell your stories and make them sound so compelling that your audience listen to your every word. I am always trying to improve my craft by coaching and recently getting involved in Supporting actor/Extra work.
