

ALAN SHARMAN AGENCY

Theo Johnson

Experienced in stage and screen acting, set and costume design, drama improvisation, mask work, Stanislavsky style of acting, Brecht style of acting, stage, design, stage fighting and fencing.
Education and qualifications.

2013 - Kingdom School of Art - Drama School

2011 - 2014: BA (Hon) 2-1 degree, Teaching Drama, Wolverhampton University

2010 - 2011: B-TEC national diploma in performing arts, level 3, (distinction), Walsall College

2009 - 2010: B-TEC first diploma in performing arts (distinction), Walsall College

Projects, clients and roles

2015

Raise by Wolves, Series 2, Channel 4 - Character: Calum

2014

Raise by Wolves, Series 1, Channel 4 (3 episodes) - Character: Calum

Sexual Health viral video, Warwickshire County Council - Main character: Dean

Super Learner ITV Advert, Solihull College

2013

Played the role of Don Gilet's son in a new sitcom for ITV called "Love and Marriage"

Advertisement for HTC phone with Bear Grylls

Comedy performance of "Female Brain" at Wolverhampton Arena Theatre

Crime Watch - BBC1, re-enactment of a criminal activity

2012

Cinema Advert, NHS, "No Smoking", played in cinemas at STARCITY

Cinema Advert, Birmingham City University, played in cinemas nationwide

Olympics Advert, Adidas, Model as an athlete

Bus Stop Advert, Travel West Midlands

Website Advert, Travel West Midlands Central Buses and Metro, Model

2011

Theo alongside his acting group (The Venue) and director Kerry Downing was entered into an acting competition against 500 other acting groups in the UK, where the winner was offered the opportunity to perform at the national theatre. With hard work and skill he performed his heart out and stole the show in the final at Warwick Theatre in Coventry. This meant on July the 9th 2011 Theo Johnson and his team got to perform the play called "Gap" in London at the National Theatre and left with a five-star rated review

Other Skills: Semi-pro rapper, Baritone singer, Songwriter, Dancer, Trainee sports coach